Edessa - Historical Settlement Varos

History Edessa 3000 years of history & culture

In 814 B.C Heraclides KARANOS makes Edessa the capital city of the first kingdom of the Macedonians and the fate of the city was identified with the history of Macedonia. Ancient, byzantine but also industrial finds testify the towns' history. Romans, Slavs as well as Ottomans pass from its history.

On 18th. October 1912 the town was liberated and incorporated to the Hellenic state as capital city of the Prefecture of Pella. In 1923 many Asian refugees came to live in Edessa while in the 50 '60ies.the "White Coal" (hydro energy), which for centuries had moved mills, workshops, industries and factories, becomes useless. This was the end of the industrial growth of the town.

Today the town's future project follows the history & the rich Macedonian tradition.

Important stages in the history of Edessa:
Prehistoric times (4000-3000 B.C). In the area of "Loggos" and "Paradisos" (Hotel Xenia) many archeological finds have been discovered.

Historical times the settling of the Macedonians- the use of the name EDESSA (derived from Feð, which is derived from the word υδ-ωρ (water) and means the town of waters.

Edessa becomes the capital city of the Macedonian state.

Ancient times. Edessa is built on two levels the Acropolis (part of modern Edessa) and the main ancient town (place Loggos). There are indications that Aiges and Edessa is the same town. It's the place where Phillip the Second founds a state. Alexander the Great and his army expand this state, which soon becomes the Macedonian Empire.

168 BC.-130BC. The conquest by the Romans. The Via Egnatia passes through Edessa.

Ancient Pella

Situated in the heart of the town, near the park "Alexander the Great" and park Timenidon , convenient to the shopping area, hotel Alfa has a history of 30 years. It has been the choice for most of the businessmen since 1970. For business or for pleasure, it is sure that your stay will be comfortable in a friendly and respectable atmosphere. Winter in Edessa ...Warm & Hospitable Edessa is poetic and charming in winter. Even the great poet Menelaos Loudemis recognizes Edessa 'as the step on which God stands to climb up into the sky'. With authentic Macedonian hospitality both Edessa & Mountainous Pella are excellent proposals for weekends & many days vacation.

The people in Edessa are kind with a spontaneous sense of hospitality and you surely will find what you are looking for if you choose to gift yourself with a few days of relaxation.

Do all you Christmas shopping at the shopping center of the town, also visit the open air market (every Thursday) at place Kioupri. You can also buy your Christmas gifts from the market ,organized in Edessa by the German Union Club-the Horizon center-the Nursery (creative pastime for children).

On these days you will be able to see a lot of tradition as well as local customs in Edessa but also at the villages (Agia Fotini, Agra, Vritta, Karidia, Kerasia, Klisohori, Kesariana, Liki, Margharitha, Mesimeri Nisi, Platani, Rizari, Sotira,Flamouria). But the Ski-Resort Voras-Kaimaktalan is a MUST for those who like skiing, snowboard and snowgames.

The festivities end with the event of the 'Kites' on Shrove Monday. Springtime takes over and Edessa has now a different face to show.

Local Gastronomy

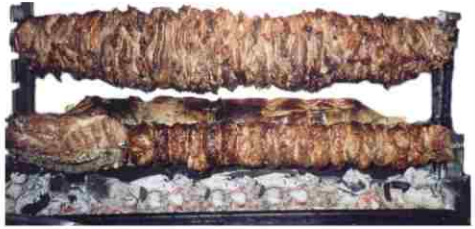

Local cuisine

The local cuisine of the area has a wide variety of recipes, which hide many secrets. You can find these special dishes in the meat-eating mountainous areas or fish-eating lakeside areas in local traditional taverns.

Also, the splendor of local cuisine finds its expression on the occasion of feasts, traditional festivals, weddings, and fêtes. One of the dishes that is in great demand is Tsoempleki (official dish of Edessa), which is a typical example of food, eaten at Christmas, Easter, and special events (tsoempleki - made of meat and several greens -pepper, eggplant, potatoes & cheese). Preparation: Put all the ingredients in an olla (the local people call it 'lakfitsa'), the lid is sealed with dough.

Another example of tradition is the pie (pita), with a coin baked into it and cut at New Year's Eve. The person who finds the coin in his piece will be lucky for the whole year.

You can also find the book "The traditional taste of Edessa" written by K. Tzoga (edition 2002). It helps you find the traditional way of preparing meals.

"Flogeres"

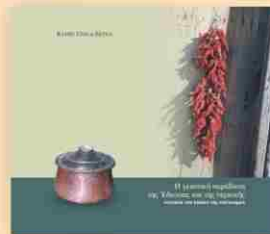

A very tasty sweet made by Custard of Milk and Almonds. Can be found in all the patisseries in Edessa.

... & a recipe

"Tsoemplek"

- 1 ½ kg beef
- 2 kg onions (roughly cut)
- 1 cup of dry plums
- 1 cup of olive oil
- 1 spoonful red pepper
- 4-5 cloves garlic
- pepper- pimento - laurel- salt

Preparation: Put all the ingredients in an olla. The meat cut into pieces, the onions roughly cut, the garlic, some laurel, some pimento, red pepper and the dry plums.

Add a little water. Put the lid on the olla and seal it with dough. Then, put it in the fireplace and keep it on the simmer for three hours. It is ready to be served.
